

How to Submit Comments

Written comments accompanied by name and address will become part of the formal record of the scoping process. While you may provide your ideas verbally during the meeting, we want to make sure your input is formally captured in your own words. You may submit written comments in three ways:

- Fill out the comment portion of this brochure and leave it in the drop box
- Take the brochure with you and return it by mail
- Provide comments via e-mail. For your convenience, you can do that here at the computer station, or visit www.mexicanwolf.org
- Faxed comments may be sent to (505) 346-2542

Please note: In order to be considered part of the formal record, your comments must include your name and address. Comments may be submitted through December 31, 2007.

Before including your address, phone number, e-mail address, or other personal information in your comment, you should be aware that your entire comment—including your personal information—may be made publicly available at any time. While you can ask us in your comment to withhold your personal information from public review, we cannot guarantee that we will be able to do so.

Comments:

- 1) When requesting an area closure, I think it's important to sign the closed area with the fact that wolves are in the area. Do not hide the reason for the closure.
- 2) People need to have the right / permission to protect their pets should the pet be attacked by a wolf.
- 3) Although it is commendable that depends of wildlife preserves licentiate operations for any wolf BSA, I think it is more appropriate for the US to payper to whom that cost as it is a result of public policy decisions that we have thus type of conflict.

Comments:

~~Please do not use this area for comments.~~

Please require that livestock owners, being the public land, to clean up dead stock. When there are carcasses left on the land, animals, such as wolves, scaveng on the dead animal.

This habituates the animals to livestock and only causes problems. Please revise the rules to include this. Also, please do not let livestock owners to use ~~chemical~~ fumigants or any other lethal methods when dealing with wolves. It would rather see livestock owners use another canine to protect their livestock.

Such canines are Komondors, ~~or~~ many different types/breeds of shepherds and other herding dogs. These are not family dogs, and should be used to protect the herd/livestock. Please encourage livestock owners to use these methods on public land.

Comments:

As a high schooler I would like to see more public education about the wolf recovery program. Such as talks at the school.

It seems as though the Mexican grey wolf needs more room to prosper than what the recovery area allows, I would love to go out my back door, which is Blue Ridge Mountain and the surrounding area and see wolf sign or even wild wolves.
